

THE EMPEROR JULIAN

The Roman Emperor Julian, a determined enemy of Christianity, was mortally wounded in a war with the Persians. In this condition, we are told, he filled his hand with blood, and casting it into the air, said, "O Galilean! Thou hast conquered."

Now during this expedition, one of Julian's followers asked a Christian of Antioch, "What the carpenter's son was doing?" "The Maker of the world," replied the Christian, "whom you call 'the carpenter's son', is employed in making a coffin for the Emperor."

A few days later, news came to Antioch of Julian's death.
